

ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS

1. The organization and functions of the Central Intelligence Agency and its components as presented herewith are established as a governing directive for the Agency, effective 19 January 1951.

2. Each Office Head:

a. Is responsible for, and has authority to carry out, the functions specified for him in this publication. Except when prohibited from so doing, he may delegate to members of his staff appropriate portions of his responsibilities together with proportionate authority for their fulfillment, but such action will not relieve him of direct overall responsibility for results.

b. Shall coordinate his activities with other Office Heads to the extent necessary for fulfillment of the overall Agency mission but will in no instance assume responsibilities and functions assigned elsewhere.

c. Will establish internal policies and procedures for the operation of his Office in consonance with this and other Agency Regulations.

d. Will prepare, in conjunction with the Deputy Director (Administration), detailed statements of functions for his principal subordinates to include branch or similar organizational level chiefs.

3. This Regulation supersedes and cancels CIA Regulation [REDACTED], dated 1 December 1950.
